Maj. William Lyon, commander of the 943rd Troop Carrier Group, an Air Force reserve unit at March Air Force Base, has announced the group will participate in Air Force Reserve Recruiting Week in Torrance.

claimed by Mayor Albert Isen as Air Force Reserve Recruiting Week. The 943rd will hold an orientation meeting in the City Council chambers at 8 p.m. Monday to acquaint local residents with the opportunity currently available to prior service personnel and reservists in the unit. The unit was recently enlarged and can now accommodate many personnel that previously were unable to secure an active flying assignment with a flying unit.

HE CITED a number of cases where industries and businesses selected a particular area for their operations because an airport was available to their executives and customers.

Star of the show was to have been the Wing Aircraft Co. Derringer, a Torrance-built plane with pilot E. G. "Slim" Kidwell at the controls. Because of the heavy rains falling at the 11 a.m. dedication hour, the plane stayed home.

Airport Commissioner Joe Doss, making a quick count of the house, indicated he didn't think anyone else did.

GEORGE H. CANN JR. Lions Officer

Club Officer Will Assist Local Lions

The Torrance Lions Club will welcome George H. Cann Jr., district governor of Lions International, which includes 45 clubs in this section of the state at Tuesday's meeting at The Palms Restaurant.

The purpose of Cann's visit will be to advise and assist Cecil Powell, president; Bob Williams, secretary; and other officers, directors, and members of the club on matters pertaining to Lions administration and the club's program of humanitarian service.

An active unit of the international association, the local Lions Club contributed $9,500 to the blind and other charitable organizations during the year 1962 to 1963.

WHILE MRS. KANE was busy receiving her trophy, lines stretching nearly a block long waited to get a table at the annual YMCA breakfast.

"It looks like it might be one of the best years ever," one YMCA worker told THE HERALD. "We may be serving here in the afternoon," he added.

Ambassador High Choir Concert Set

A special concert by the Ambassador High School Choir will be presented at services at the Southside Assembly of God Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. The Rev. Don Bibler, director of the choir and pastor of the Bel Aire Assembly of God in Hawthorne, will deliver an evangelistic message at the close of the concert.

Ambassador High School is sponsored by the Assemblies of God in the southwest. It offers training in all secular subjects and puts an emphasis on building Christian character.

The service Thursday is part of a series of special meetings in a fellowship revival conducted this week at the Southside church.

City Clerk Vernon Coil will hand over the city seal to John Monaghan, and Mark Hart and Judith Morgan will take over the offices of assistant city manager Orrin Johnson and Edward Ferraro.

Handling police duties will be Robert Goebel, who will occupy Chief Percy Bennett's office. Fire Chief J. J. Benner gives way to Steve Brown.

And, if the students make a mess of things, Sue Brown, who replaces Stanley Remel-meyer, can straighten them out as city attorney.

FOLLOWING A briefing on Monday, the students will study agendas in preparation for the Tuesday evening council meeting.

Tuesday evening, the junior citizens and their real counterparts will hear Mayor Arthur L. Selland of Fresno during a banquet at West High. Mayor Selland will address the group on the "Opportunities for Our Junior Citizens." The mayor is a member of the President's committee on intergovernmental relations.

It will come to an end Tuesday evening when the student mayor adjourns the city council meeting.

A TORRANCE man was arrested by Torrance police early Saturday and booked for suspicion of burglary and violation of narcotics laws.

Charles Edward Colvin, 20, an unemployed laborer living at 24224 Madison St., was arrested by officers James H. Davis and Eugene Bailleul after his speeding car attracted their attention on Pacific Coast Highway about 3:45 a.m. While questioning Colvin, officers noted several tools on the floor of his automobile, and were told that they had just been given to the suspect by his grandmother.

FURTHER checks of the car revealed a 4-foot prybar in the trunk along with two radios. Colvin said the bar and radios were in the car when he purchased it from a wrecking yard recently.

The car was impounded and held for checking by the city's vice officers after two rolls of white pills were found under the floor mat in a recess stamped into the auto's body near the frame.

A check of Los Angeles records showed eight outstanding warrants with a total bail of $1,484 against Colvin, most of them for traffic violations. Colvin was jailed after booking by the two officers.
